

CONTRIBUTING TO LOCAL COMMUNITY

Astir Odysseus Resort & Spa respects the local community of the island where it is based.

For this reason, the Management of the Hotel is committed to:

- cover the available jobs with local people that meeting the requirements
- purchases the bulk of the necessary supplies from local businesses and producers, ensuring the economic well-being and development of all businesses
- provide local business newsletters to inform visitors about shopping, eating, entertainment, touring, car hire, etc.
- support local customs and promote them to customers with various events taking place either inside the hotel or in some area of Kos island.
- take part in voluntary actions such as voluntary blood donation in cooperation with the local hospital of Kos
- donate bedding, clothing and food in vulnerable groups